The palpable unfairness of these provisions should be sufficient to condemn the scheme outright. It has no possible chance for any semblance of disinterested parties. The franchises have been the amount of the four-year plan as other Railroad Companies, in an effort to get the State. We support it because money is ready from its own funds better to other roads than the rule of the majority and the advantage of trade these later roads must give it.

These loans from our Railroad Company is covery that they were only long-eared and short-nosed mice. Time tells woollen tales, and if the wisdom acquired by experience were only retained, we might reap from this lesson a salutary and saving admonition.

How near Hand.—A Washington correspondent for a U. S. publican journal says the strength of the parties for and against anti-slavery is, 38 for, 40 against. In this list New York is put down 20 for and 9 against. New York 19 for and 0 against.

The Peace Conference.
The Peace Conference now sitting at Washington, has so far accomplished nothing more than appointed a Committee to devise some plan of adjustment between North and South.

The Pacific Railroad Bill Passed.—The Senate, on Wednesday, passed the Pacific Railroad bill by a vote of thirty-four to fourteen. It goes back to the House for concurrence in the Senate's amendments.

...REPRESENTATIVE DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION, New Haven, Feb. 8.—The Convention unanimously elected C. Loomis, of Bridgeport, Governor, and A. G. Hazard, of Fairfield, Lieutenant Governor. The work of the convention is the same as last year.

...The delegates were divided among the Ortis and the corporation, declaring that any law which would deprive the reality of the State to the benefit of the Corporation, and that the people of the State should be protected.
